ALL ARE INVITED

An Expert Pattern Demonstrator will be at this store Thursday, April 12th, to demonstrate the many advantages the Ladies' Home Journal Patterns have over all others. Come and let her show you how easy it is, with these patterns, to do your own dress-making. All invited. Thursday, April 12th.

HOMER FITTS

That EXCLUSIVE Style

SO MUCH SOUGHT FOR

Is admirably shown in the Spring styles of the

"ELVA"
Shoe for Women.

Each last shown this season is new and original and can be found in no other line.

Dull Calf and Patent Leather are among the most popular leathers, but there is a good choice of styles in Kid. We would be pleased to have you come in and inspect these Shoes. You would surely find something suitable, and as Easter is so near this is the best time to make your selection.

The directors of the Inter-city base ball association expect to hold a meeting this evening at which time progress on the signing of players will be reported.

All those who took part in the last concert given by the Boys' Brigade of the First Presbyterian church are requested to meet in the church this evening at 7 o'clock. Per James H. Mackay.

The Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will hold its regular monthly business meeting with Mrs. Michael French tomorrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. It is requested that the ladies having missionary work will return it at the meeting.

A. E. Batchelder, et al. have complied with all the requirements of the Vermont statute relating to the posting of their ponds in Orange in the county of Orange, in the procuring of fish and the stocking of said ponds, and also in placing on file with the town clerk in Orange A. E. Batchelder's affidavit for same.

Among the prominent members of the "Busy Izzy's Vacation" company may be mentioned Madeline Broughton. Miss Broughton is of the blonde type, tall and picturesque, and has excited some comment by her unusual beauty. She will be seen to advantage in many stately gowns, which she wears with a queenly air, and feminine grace.

Carroll W. Strong, formerly of this city, who entered the Albany college of Pharmacy at Albany, N. Y., in Oct. 1905, graduated from that college yesterday. Mr. Strong carried away two prizes, and was mentioned in the third, last year. This year he was elected president of his class. He is a young man of only twenty-two years and his many friends wish him good success in life.

Notice to the Public.

Peter Martin has secured work at Northfield and was in town Saturday night to make preparations to move his family from 54 Summer street to that place.

The voices of the "Hello" girls have been sweeter than ever today, and one reason is that they were remembered this morning by George E. Allen of South Barre, with a 10-pound pail of new maple sugar.

Bristling with music, pretty girls and bright costumes, George Sidney will bring his new vehicle, "Busy Izzy's Vacation" to the opera house Thursday evening. Sidney is well known to theatre-goers, through his appearance the past three seasons at the head of the "Busy Izzy" company, in the Hebrew characterization, which won him fame and praise throughout the country. An impersonator of Jewish character he has no equal and set him among a large coterie of clever comedians and the fun resulting is fast and spirited enough to draw laughter from the halibut crank.
